Dear Mr. Parlow.

I always enjoy your letters; congratulation about the Court-Concert at Christiansburg!
Miss Killings told me that Kathleen got a head cold? I hope it is now finished? Concerning the travelling expenses of Mr.
Frost, I think, considering the agreement made in London, there is nothing (as I remember) about such expenses for him.

On an other side, he made a good management for Nathaniel Schuch in London.

Considering that he has still 50% of the Receipts - netto to not very brilliant if you take away the travelling expenses, (and less brilliant for you, having to pay double expenses) I should offer him the third, 300 marks. —

You know all the news about the American - English Colonie -- Miss Thynne has her first lesson to-morrow.

I had a little misfortune on my last journey: I had to stop on a ^{small} ~~little~~ station, the snow made stop the train, so I lost a Concert. — I shall play here two Concerts and one in Moscow.

The health is not bad, but I cannot sleep at night; too nervous perhaps!

Miss Bentwick writes me very proud; she takes lessons with Chesha; of course, after Auer, she could not find a better teacher! - Let me always know what You are doing; and write me soon when You are able to come to Petersburg. -

Best love to You both.

L. Auer
